Dear Pete,

I was hoping that we could have the meeting on the 14th, but if we can't, we can't.

The meeting date will be problematical, in any event, as my Setp-mother is very ill and I might not be able to attend, anyway.

I have not been up yet, this year. I was going up on the w/e of the 19th of May, but there were interferences.

When you are there, I would appreciate your checking with Graham on the road situation so that he is ready to give his report. I will not be up until the 28th of June, and then for 2 weeks. I will have to come back up for the 21st meeting.

Graham has a copy of the address list, and I am waiting for him to return it with corrections. I will be glad to send out the invitations, as I have the address list on my little computer-typewriter which I am doing this on. All I need is the wording.

I would suggest that we do not ask Mary Scott to be the Sec. again, and would appreciate suggestions. Esther Herbst agreed to replace me as President, and I will write her shortly to remind her and to hold her to it. I presume that you will remain on as Treasurer - after all - you don't want to be audited, do you?

So let me know the wording on the card, and I will get them out. Have fun!

Sincerely,
